

EXTRAORDINARY SUPPLEMENTAL DOCKET REQUEST

(FORM 10A)

The Nunavut Court of Justice requires 5 business days notice for matters to appear on the NCJ docket. For new charges, the five days should be calculated from the date the information is laid. Dockets are finalized the Wednesday before the scheduled Court sitting. In the event that the RCMP wishes to file additional informations beyond the docket being finalized, this form must be completed and accompany the information. Informations sworn after the Thursday before a scheduled court sitting in a community should be retained by the RCMP and presented to the Court Clerk upon the Clerk's arrival in the community.

Accused Name:

Date information was sworn:

Requested court date:

Reason for request to add information to the Docket:

- The Accused has additional files set to the current docket and the disclosure is prepared and has been/ will be provided to the Crown upon their arrival in the Community.
- The Accused has been remanded into custody and the disclosure is prepared and has been/ will be provided to the Crown upon their arrival in the Community.
- The Accused is a Youth as defined by the Youth Criminal Justice Act and the disclosure is prepared and has been/ will be provided to the Crown upon their arrival in the Community.

Request approved by Clerk: _____